

SAFEGUARD YOUR MISSION: 7 ESSENTIAL CONTINUITY QUESTIONS

If your answer is “No” to any of these, it’s time to build your continuity plan.

Do you have a written continuity plan in place?

☐

A documented plan reduces confusion and shortens downtime.

Have you backed up your donor and financial data in the last 24 hours?

☐

Real-time mission work needs real-time backups.

Can your team work remotely if your building is inaccessible?

☐

Disruption shouldn’t stop your ability to serve.

Do you know which systems must come online first after an outage?

☐

Prioritization ensures the right resources come back quickly.

Do staff and volunteers know what to do in an emergency?

☐

A plan only works if people know their roles.

Is your communication plan ready for public-facing updates?

☐

Preserve donor and member trust by communicating clearly during a crisis.

Have you tested your continuity plan in the last 12 months?

☐

Untested plans often fail when they’re needed most.

Your Mission Deserves a Strong Foundation.

Let’s build a continuity plan that’s right-sized, right now.
